Introducing Transport for London

London has one of the largest public transport networks in the world. It is run by a not-for-profit organisation called Transport for London (TfL).

Travel with ease

Every day around 24 million journeys are made on TfL's network across London.

Our transport services are fully integrated so it's easy to switch between them. Each service offers you a unique experience and will help you make the most of your visit.

Choose from the following:

- London Underground (the Tube)
- Buses
- Docklands Light Railway (DLR)
- London Overground
- Santander Cycles
- Emirates Air Line cable car
- London River Services
- Trams

An iconic transport system

Dating back to the first Underground train in 1863, TfL has a rich and varied heritage. No other city on earth is as defined by its transport system as London, with its red buses, black cabs and Tube trains instantly recognised the world over.

London Underground's famous logo, the roundel, was designed by calligrapher Edward Johnston and first appeared in 1908.

Tip:

Visit the London Transport Museum in Covent Garden to find out more about TfL's history.

Getting started in London

London's public transport network is fully integrated so it's very easy to switch between the different services. Buying a Visitor Oyster card before you leave home makes it even easier to travel around. Use your card as soon as you arrive and hop on and off our different transport services* as often as you wish.

Travel zones

London's public transport network is divided into nine travel zones. Zones 1 and 2 are in central London, and Zones 6-9 are on the outskirts of the city.

Travel times

Travel fares vary depending on the transport service you use, the zone(s) you travel in, the day you travel and the time of day you travel – peak or off peak.

Peak travel is between 06:30-09:30 and 16:00-19:00 Monday to Friday. Travel is more expensive during peak hours.

Off peak travel is at all other times (including bank holidays). Travel is cheaper during off peak hours.

Getting out of the city

There are lots of attractions in Zones 1 and 2, but many more are only a short journey away:

- Crystal Palace Park (Zone 3)
- Hampton Court Palace (Zone 6)
- Harry Potter Studios (Zone 9)
- Kenwood House (Zone 3)
- Kew Gardens (Zone 3)
- Queen Elizabeth Olympic Park (Zone 3)
- Richmond Park (Zone 4)
- Wembley Stadium (Zone 4)
- William Morris Gallery (Zone 3)
- Wimbledon Lawn Tennis Museum and Wimbledon Stadium (Zone 3)

* You need a credit or debit card to use a Santander Cycles bike – simply go to a docking station with your card to get started. Bike access costs just £2.

Save money with a Visitor Oyster card

A Visitor Oyster card is a smartcard pre-loaded with pay as you go credit that you can use to travel in London.

It's a quick and easy way to pay for single journeys on bus, Tube, tram, DLR, London Overground, TfL Rail, MBNA Thames Clippers River Bus services, Emirates Air Line cable car and most National Rail train services in London.

Start exploring straightaway

We will post your card to your home address so your card is ready to use as soon as you arrive in London.

What is a Visitor Oyster card?

It is a smart card that's pre-loaded with money for travel around London. The system automatically calculates the cost of each journey you make based on the service you use, when you travel and which zone(s) you travel in.

Great value

To save you money, there is a daily price cap when you use your Visitor Oyster card – once you have reached this limit, you won't pay any more. For example you can travel as many times as you like in a day in Zones 1 and 2 (from 04:30 to 04:29 the next day) and you will never be charged more than £6.50 – even if you make 20 journeys!

Visiting London for two days?

Start with £20 credit on your card for unlimited off-peak travel in central London and a single journey on the Emirates Air Line.

Buy your card now!

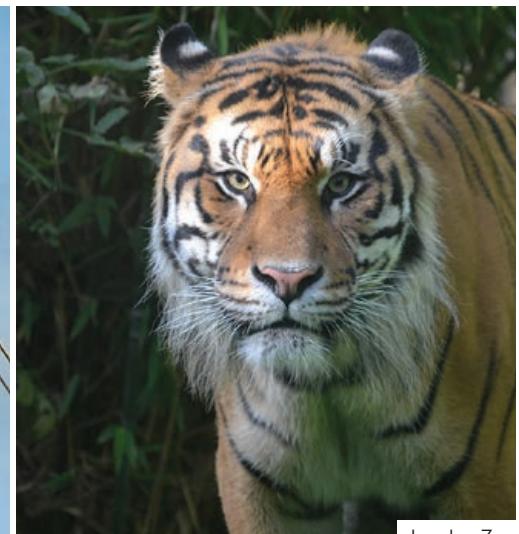

Cards cost just £3 (non-refundable) plus postage.

Child tickets

Children aged under 11 can travel for free on buses and trams. They can also travel for free on Tube, DLR and London Overground services as long as they are accompanied by a fare paying adult.

Children aged under five travel for free on the Emirates Air Line when accompanied by a fare paying adult.

Visit visitorshop.tfl.gov.uk to buy child tickets before you leave home.

Tip:

Enjoy up to 26% off on Emirates Air Line cable car and up to 19% off on single journeys on MBNA Thames Clippers River Bus services (compared to paper ticket fares) with your Visitor Oyster card.

How to use your ticket

It's easy to travel around London with your Visitor Oyster card – simply hop on and hop off our services.

Using a Visitor Oyster card on Tube, DLR, London Overground, TfL Rail, Emirates Air Line and National Rail services

To pay the right fare for your journey, you need to touch your card on the yellow card reader at the gates and wait for the green light to show when you start your journey – and again when you end it. If you don't do this, the system will not know which journey you made and you will be charged a maximum fare.

Where there are no gates look for the card readers – they might be free-standing or wall-mounted instead.

Using a Visitor Oyster card on River services

Oyster pay as you go is accepted on MBNA Thames Clippers River Bus services.

Touch your card on the reader when asked to board by a member of MBNA Thames Clippers staff and touch out again at the end of your journey, or when changing boats. Fares are not included in the Visitor Oyster card daily fare cap.

You can also use Oyster PAYG credit to pay for river tour tickets at Thames River Services and Circular Cruise Westminster ticket offices.

Using a Visitor Oyster card on buses and trams

On buses and trams you only need to touch the yellow card reader at the start of your journey.

What happens if I run out of credit on my card?

It's easy to add more credit to your card at:

- Ticket machines at Tube, DLR, London Overground and some National Rail stations

- Around 4,000 Oyster Ticket Stops in London – look out for the sign or visit ticketstoplocator.tfl.gov.uk
- Tube and London Overground station ticket offices

How to add credit at a ticket machine

To add credit to your card, touch it on the yellow card reader at the ticket machine – it will tell you how much money is left on your card. You can then add more money and pay with either a debit or credit card or cash.

Remember to touch your card again on the yellow reader to complete your purchase.

What happens if I have credit left on my card at the end of my visit?

You can keep your card for future visits or lend it to your family and friends.

If you would like a refund on any remaining credit, you can get up to £10 on ticket machines at stations, or take your card to a Visitor Centre.

Getting around

London's transport services offer you a unique experience of the city. Here's a round-up of the transport options available to you.

London Underground

Underground There are 11 colour-coded Underground lines. Services run regularly from around 05:00 to 00:30 (Sunday 07:30 to 23:30) on most routes. See page 16 for a Tube map or visit tfl.gov.uk/tube for more information.

Tip:

Always stand on the right when using the escalators at Tube stations. It can get hot and busy on the Tube during peak travel times, so you may prefer to travel outside these hours.

Buses

A cheap and easy way to travel around London. They generally run from 05:00 to 00:30. Night buses operate on many major routes from around midnight to 05:00, and some operate a 24-hour service.

It is not possible to pay for your London bus fare in cash. Instead you can pay with a Visitor Oyster card, Oyster card, Travelcard or UK-issued contactless payment card. A single bus journey is £1.50 with an Oyster card or UK-issued contactless payment card.

To help you get home, if you don't have enough credit on your Oyster card, you will be able to make one more bus journey. After this you will need to top up the credit on your card before you use it again.

If your contactless payment card has been issued outside the UK, please check tfl.gov.uk/contactless before you use your card to travel on our bus services. For any international transaction fees or charges that may apply, please check with your card issuer.

See page 17 for a central London bus map or for more information visit tfl.gov.uk/buses

Tip:

Some bus routes are especially good for sightseeing – try routes 9, 14, 15 and 22. The New Routemaster bus featured in the James Bond film 'S' yfall' and runs on routes 9, 11, 24, 38 and 390.

If you run out of credit on your Visitor Oyster card, it's easy to add more at:

- Touchscreen ticket machines in Tube, DLR, London Overground and some National Rail stations
- Around 4,000 Oyster Ticket Stops cross London (Find your nearest one at ticketstoplocator.tfl.gov.uk)
- Travel & Visitor Information Centres
- London Overground station ticket offices

Docklands light Railway (DLR)

DLR driverless trains run from 05:30 to 00:30 Monday to Saturday and from 07:00 to 23:30 on Sunday. There are trains every 4–10 minutes running on routes from stations at Bank and Tower Gateway to Docklands, East and South East London. Take the DLR to visit Canary Wharf, Cutty Sark for Maritime Greenwich, ExCeL London, London City Airport or Woolwich Arsenal. Visit tfl.gov.uk/dlr for more information.

Tip:

Visit dlrlondon.co.uk/Things-to-Do for ideas for a fun day out on the DLR. Why not download a free DLR audio guide too?

London Overground

London Overground are local train services which run on four routes and provide an orbital network around the capital. They are a great way to see the hidden parts of London. Trains run approximately every 7-15 minutes during peak hours on most lines. See the Tube map on page 16 for London Overground routes and visit tfl.gov.uk/overground for more information.

London River Services

Travelling by boat on the River Thames is a relaxing way to see the sights. Choose from River Buses which are a great alternative to the Tube or bus, or River Tours which are more leisurely and often include a commentary. Popular stops include: Millbank Pier for Tate Britain; Bankside Pier for Tate Modern; Tower Pier for the Tower of London and Tower Bridge; Greenwich Pier for Greenwich and North Greenwich Pier for the Emirates Air Line cable car.

Save up to 19% on single journeys on MBNA Thames Clippers River Bus services. You must have a Visitor Oyster card with travel credit on it. Fares are not included in the Visitor Oyster card daily fare cap.

See the river services map on page 18, visit tfl.gov.uk/river for more information or pick up the London River Services leaflet from Tube stations.

Tip:

Why not take a River Bus between the Tate Britain and Tate Modern art galleries?

Santander Cycles

Santander Cycles is a public bike hire scheme for short journeys across central, east, west and south west London. There are over 10,000 bikes for hire and 700 docking stations. There's no need to book – simply hire a bike, ride it where you like, then return it to any docking station. Go to any docking station with your credit or debit card to get started. It costs £2 to access the bikes for 24 hours, and the first 30 minutes of every bike journey you make in that 24 hour period is free. Longer journeys cost £2 for each extra 30 minutes.

Visit tfl.gov.uk/barclayscyclehire or for general information on cycling in London visit tfl.gov.uk/cycling

Tip:

Try a Santander Cycles leisure route for interesting sight-seeing tours including 'London's secret gardens' and 'Quirky London'. See Itinerary 2 on page 13 for details of the 'Independent shops and markets' route.

Walking

Walking in London is a great way to get around. Look out for our black and yellow street signs and maps – they give you useful information about the local area including key landmarks, with realistic five and 15 minute walking times.

Visit tfl.gov.uk/walking for more information and walking routes.

Accessibility

There are a wide range of accessible transport options so you can travel more easily around London:

- Step-free travel is available at almost half of London Overground stations, all DLR stations and Tramlink stops and nearly a quarter of all Tube stations, with more improvements planned. There are also ramps available enabling wheelchair users to board trains. See Tube map on page 16 for details of step-free stations.
- We've introduced wide-aisle gates at most London Overground and Tube stations to provide easier access for wheelchair users, assistance-dog owners, people with buggies and passengers with luggage.
- All 8,500 London buses (except heritage Routemaster buses) are low-floor vehicles and have space for one wheelchair user. Bus travel is free for wheelchair users. Tramlink travel is also free for wheelchair users.
- All our buses, London Overground and DLR trains, trams and most Tube trains now have a "next-stop" audio-visual system to let you know when you're approaching your destination.
- The DLR and Emirates Air Line cable car are accessible for all.
- All eight TfL-managed piers are accessible for wheelchair users – the newer river boats also have dedicated wheelchair spaces. Please check the pier access before you travel at tfl.gov.uk/river.
- All licensed taxis (black cabs) are wheelchair accessible.
- Some National Rail services have step-free access, but if you need staff assistance you must book it 24 hours in advance. Visit www.nationalrail.co.uk for more information.

To find out more, visit tfl.gov.uk/transport-accessibility or call 0343 222 1234*

*Service and network charges apply.

Emirates Air Line

The Emirates Air Line is London's first urban cable car service and crosses the River Thames connecting The O2 and ExCeL London via terminals at Emirates Greenwich Peninsula and Emirates Royal Docks. Open seven days a week, it's a great way to see stunning panoramic views of London from the air day and night. The Emirates Air Line is close to the Tube (North Greenwich), DLR (Royal Victoria), buses and London River Services too so it's easy to plan an interesting journey. Why not take a River Bus home? See the Tube map on page 16 for the Emirates Air Line's location and visit tfl.gov.uk/emiratesairline for more information and to book your tickets in advance.

Trams

Tram services run in south London between Wimbledon, Croydon, Beckenham and New Addington. Services run every 7-10 minutes and link up with Wimbledon station.

Visit tfl.gov.uk/trams for more information.

Taxis (black cabs)

You can hail one of London's famous taxis on the street whenever the yellow 'TAXI' sign on the front is lit. The minimum fare is £2.20 – the fare will be shown on the meter and you pay at the end of your journey. Note fares increase after 20:00. There is no charge for luggage or extra passengers, however there is an extra charge for journeys starting at Heathrow.

Visit tfl.gov.uk/taxis-and-minicabs for more information.

Minicabs (private hire)

Minicabs are cars with a driver available for hire on a pre-booked basis. They must always be booked in advance via a minicab office. We advise you against getting in any vehicle where the driver approaches you in the street and says they are a minicab available for hire.

To book a minicab visit

Southbank walking tour

This self-guided walk along the southern bank of the River Thames explores one of the most vibrant areas of central London.

How to get there:

Travel by bus or Tube to Waterloo and walk to the Southbank or take the River Bus to Embankment Pier and walk across Hungerford Bridge.

At the end of the walk, cross Tower Bridge and return to central London from the north side of the river via Tower Hill Tube station on the District or Circle Line, or on a route 15 bus to Aldwych/Somerset House.

6. The Clink

A museum built on the site of one of England's oldest and most notorious prisons.

7. The Golden Hinde

A full-sized model of Sir Francis Drake's ship.

1. Southbank

Major theatre, concert and arts centre with a lively calendar of events.

2. Gabriel's Wharf

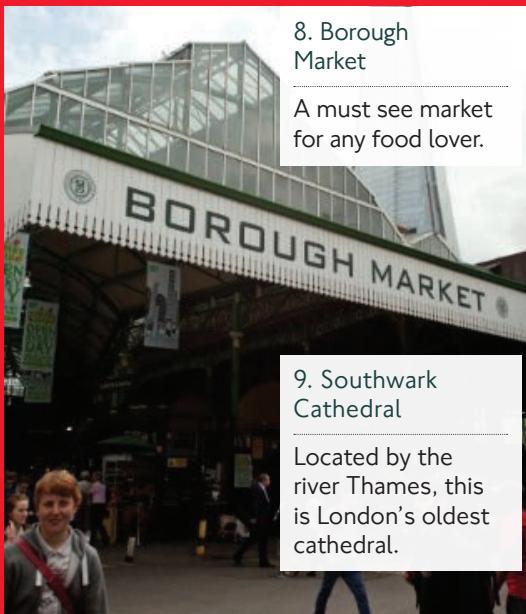

Home to a fascinating mix of independent shops, cafes, bars and restaurants.

3. Oxo Tower

Design-led boutiques and eighth floor riverside dining with spectacular views.

4. Globe Theatre

A reconstruction of Shakespeare's original Globe theatre.

8. Borough Market

A must see market for any food lover.

9. Southwark Cathedral

Located by the river Thames, this is London's oldest cathedral.

10. Hays Galleria

Shops, bars and restaurants in a converted wharf.

5. Tate Modern and Millennium Bridge

A world-famous collection of modern art.

11. More London and City Hall

Free events take place in the outdoor amphitheatre.

12. Tower Bridge

One of the world's best recognised bridges.

Itinerary 2.

Cycling tour: independent shops and markets

Enjoy a unique shopping experience – explore London's markets and boutiques by bike along a 7.7km route.

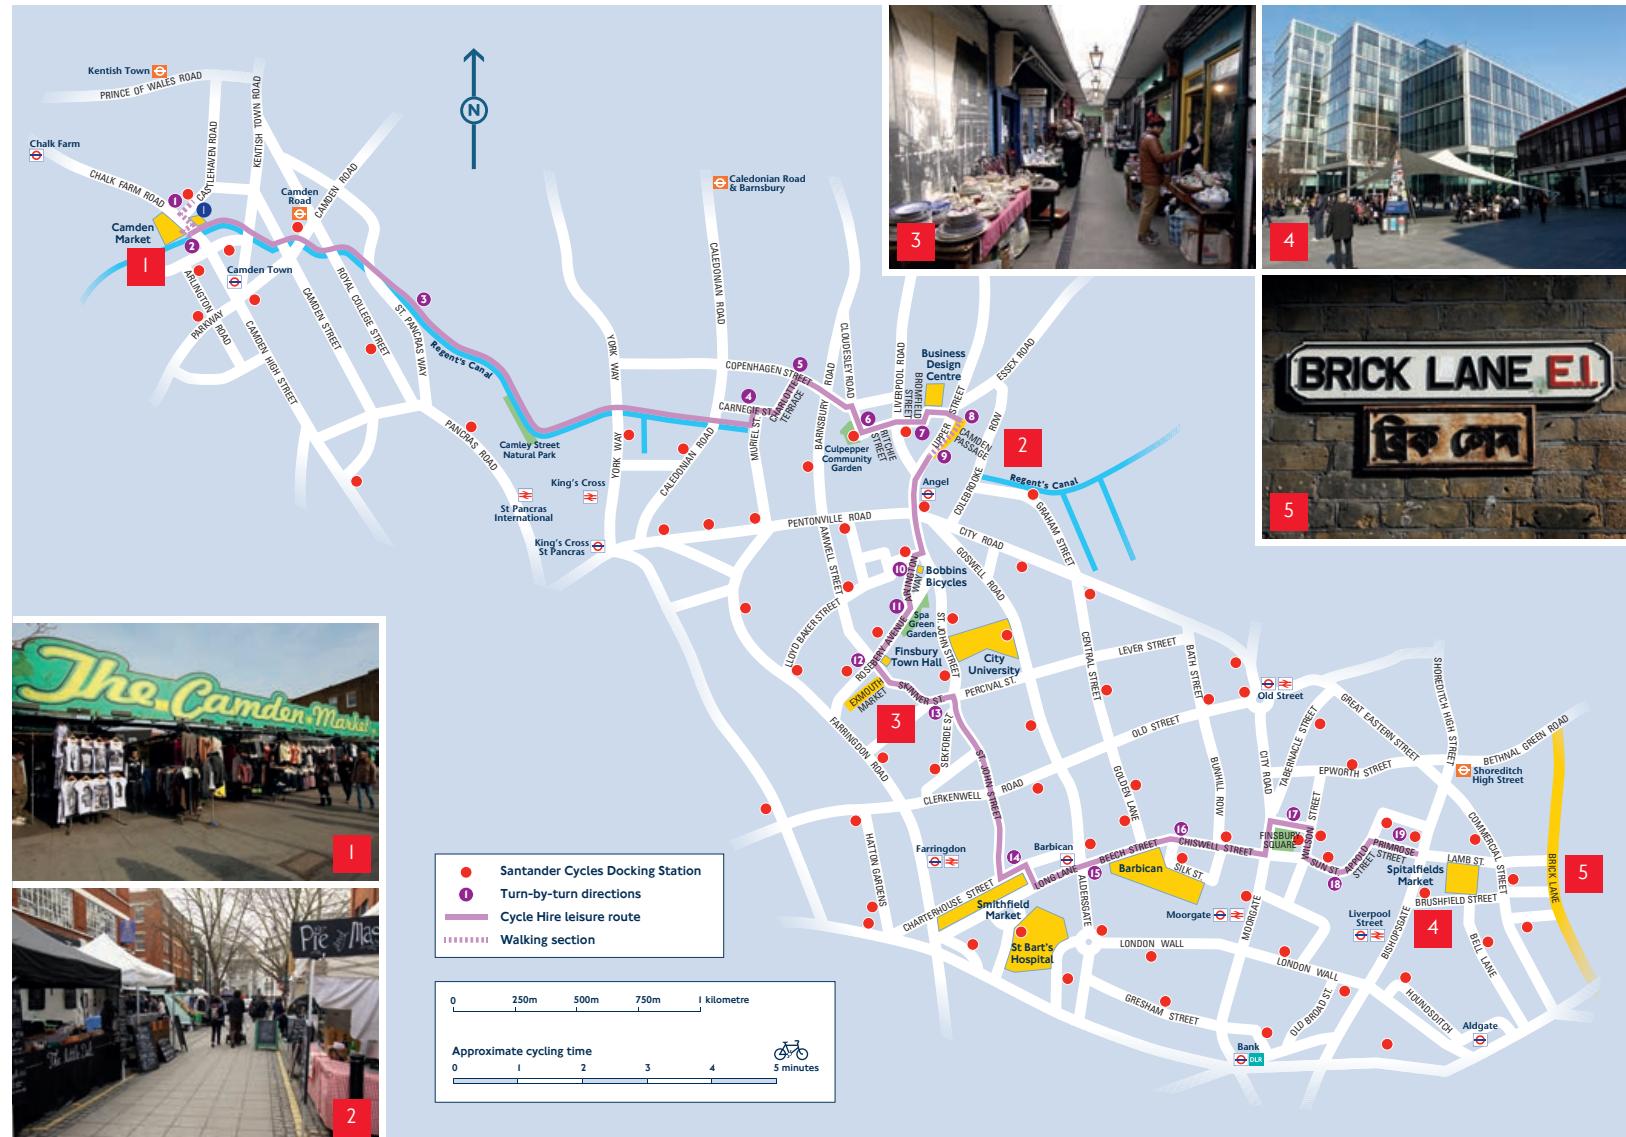

How to get there:

Take the Tube to Camden Town and hire a Santander Cycles bike at the docking station on Greenland Road. See page 8 for information about Santander Cycles or visit tfl.gov.uk/leisureroutes

At the end of the route, return your bike to the docking station in Fashion Street and take the Tube to central London from Aldgate East on the District or Hammersmith and City Line or take a route 15 bus.

1. Camden Market

There are five separate markets selling arts and crafts, vintage fashion and jewellery.

4. Spitalfields

Dock your bike and explore this area on foot. There are different markets each day, so check online at spitalfields.co.uk

5. Brick Lane

A bubbling artistic hub that's popular with those who have an eye for a bargain.

Itinerary 2.

Cycling tour: turn-by-turn directions

These match the numbers on the map overleaf. The route will take 45-50 minutes, longer if you stop along the way.

If you want to follow the route on your smartphone or any other location-aware device, see the Google map on the Independent Shops and Markets leisure route page – visit tfl.gov.uk/leisureroutes.

- 1 Hire a bike from Castlehaven Road near Camden Market.
- 2 Walk the bike back towards Camden Market and cross over to the other side of the road. To get on to Regent's Canal look for the path on to the canal marked 'Camden Lock East Yard'.
- 3 Once you are on the canal continue under the bridge and cycle towards Islington. Remember that pedestrians have priority at all times.
- 4 When you can go no further along the canal due to the tunnel take the path to the left. On Muriel Street continue left followed by a right on to Carnegie Street.
- 5 Continue left on Charlotte Terrace and then right on to Copenhagen Street.
- 6 Turn right using the cycle path on to Cloutesley Road and left on Ritchie Street.

- 7 The route continues straight ahead on Bromfield Street. Using the cycle path continue to the left.
- 8 At the traffic lights continue straight ahead over the junction and walk your bike along the Camden Passage.
- 9 Continue to the right and after Camden Passage continue straight ahead to rejoin Upper Street.
- 10 Keep going straight, over the junction and then take a right turn on to Arlington Way. You'll pass by Bobbin Bicycles.
- 11 Turn right at the end of Arlington Way on to Rosebery Avenue.
- 12 Turn left on to Rosoman Street just after Finsbury Town Hall. Exmouth Market is located on the right. There is a docking station nearby Tysoe Street.
- 13 Continue straight ahead down Skinner Street along the cycle path and turn right on to St. John Street.
- 14 Continue straight ahead, over Clerkenwell Road and you'll reach Smithfield Market. Take a left on Charterhouse Street and then the next right on Lindsey Street.
- 15 Head left on Long Lane and continue straight ahead over the junction.
- 16 Keep going straight ahead. Beech Street will become Chiswell Street.
- 17 When you reach Finsbury Square turn left and then the next right on to Christopher Street, then take the next right on to Wilson Street.
- 18 Take the next left on to Sun Street and follow the road as it curves to the left and becomes Appold Street.
- 19 Turn right on to Primrose Street and at the end there will be a docking station on the left. Spitalfields market is straight ahead.

Why not try our other leisure routes too?

Saturday markets London's markets provide a lively urban environment that promises to awaken your senses.

Quirky London Step away from the tourist clichés and discover another side to the city.

London's secret gardens Seek out the greener side of London in the Capital's gardens, parks and secret squares.

Tip:

Don't forget there are some lovely parks to cycle in too:

Battersea Park in Wandsworth on the south side of the river has dedicated cycle paths that pass the famous boating lake, the Peace Pagoda and the Festival Gardens.

Victoria Park, the People's Park, can be reached off-road along the Regent's Canal through Mile End Park. There are dedicated cycle paths that take you the full length of the park.

Hyde Park has dedicated cycle paths and is home to The Serpentine Lake, Speakers' Corner and the Diana Memorial Fountain.

Regent's Park is one of the most picturesque parks. It houses London Zoo and you can often see penguins and giraffes from the park. The outer circle is the perfect place to practise cycling on the road in quiet traffic.

Itinerary 3.
